

WEEKLY DRAGON TALES

May 26, 2024

Living the Langdon LAIR life

Hello Langdon school families,

This week our bands will play in their annual Spring concert. They have been busy practicing and honing the skills they have learned this year. We hope you can make it to one of the performances in Thursday. Chances are you will recognize some of the tunes and there will once again be special guests joining in for one of the songs.

Grade 5 students from Sarah Thompson School will be coming over on Thursday for a tour and staying for the afternoon concert. This is one of a few get togethers all the grade 5s will have before the end of the school year. It is a great opportunity to meet their new peers, reduce some of the anxiety of the unknown, and get a preview of what is to come in grade 6.

There have been a number of instances of students wearing clothes that are inappropriate for school. This is a reminder of what is stated in our school handbook:

Students and staff are expected to wear appropriate, respectful clothing when at school. We appreciate that trends change over time but there is a time and place for certain items. We ask your assistance in ensuring students understand what acceptable attire at school is. For clarification:

- Clothing having racial, sexual, vulgar, unsafe (i.e. references to drugs or weapons) or offensive slogans or images shall not be worn at school.

Everyone in our building deserves courtesy and we all play a part in respecting one another where we work and learn. Thank you for your understanding and support.

Staff were fortunate to learn a bit more about the Langdon Community Association, the Langdon Library and Synergy at our last professional learning day. With summer just around the corner, we want to help out our community members and share some information for families:
