

WEEKLY DRAGON TALES

November 10, 2024

Living the Langdon LAIR life

Hello Langdon school families,

Students and staff paid their respects and honoured those who fought for our freedom during Friday's Remembrance Ceremony. We were fortunate to welcome Corp. Kevin Armitage who spoke to us about "Passing the torch" and how it was our job to give back to the communities we are lucky to be a part of. Thank you to the band, our emcees and special speakers, grade 5 singers with Mrs. Schrauwen, our Last Post players, our wreath layers, the Colour Guard (with special guests from the Calgary Police, RCMP and Armed Forces) and Mr. Legault for directing the ceremony. A few pictures below. (We apologize for the lack of clarity around parents attending. Typically, school ceremonies are closed, however, we do have the space to welcome others as we have done in the past. Next year, we will ask for interested parents to RSVP.)

We would like to welcome Mr. Jim Schmid who is filling in for our band/music teacher, Ms. Auburn. Mr. Schmid started Thursday and was ready to lead the band Friday morning. He has a wealth of music and teaching experience. We are happy to share we have also hired Mr. Gabor Zuban for our grade 4/5 class. He will be with us until Mrs. Behnia returns in the new year.

Mark your calendars for the Christmas event on Nov 30th at the Langdon Community Library. There will be a kid's holiday store, Santa, coloring contest, firepits, crafts and more. There is also a colouring contest. More details to come soon!

Please note that we will only have the one Parent/teacher/student conference evening this month, as the other evening will be a Fall Showcase of Learning. If you do not book in with your child's teacher for the 27th, you can reach out to them anytime to discuss your child's progress. We encourage those parents who do not have any concerns and would just like to have a visit or see their child's work, to come on Showcase evening. Interview spaces are limited and there may be those who need a private conversation. This is our first fall showcase so we will determine if these continue next year, or we add back another interview evening.

Have a wonderful week,

Shannon Storey
