

WEEKLY DRAGON TALES

June 1, 2025

Living the Langdon LAIR life

Hello Langdon school families,

Thank you to Mrs. Auburn and all the band/music students for once again putting on a stellar concert last Thursday and Friday. The students should be proud of their hard work this year. Thank also to the staff, parents and Mr. Auburn who joined in. I know I enjoy that tradition!

We want to provide some clarity on the end of year awards.

June 23, 1pm:

Grade 1-8: One person from each grade will receive a Living the LAIR life, Dragon of the Year Award

(We will also award June Dragons of the Month)

There will be a reward for the highest overall average (5 core subjects) for grade 7 and grade 8

Junior High students are also eligible for awards in CTF, Music, Excellence in Art and Athletics.

Grade 7: will receive Honours and Honours with Distinction certificates in their homerooms

Grade 8: will receive Honours and Honours with Distinction certificates at the Grade 8 farewell ceremony (June 19).

If you have volunteered with our school this year – perhaps as a field trip chaperone, one of our Career Day guests, helped in the classroom, with the hot lunch or breakfast program...we want to thank you at our Volunteer Tea on June 12 at 1pm.

There was an amazing turn-out for the Langdon's Got Talent auditions last week. It takes a lot of courage to even audition in front of judges let alone the entire school. The tough part is choosing the acts as there is not enough time for everyone to perform. The show is this Friday at 9am. If your child is performing, you are welcome to come and join the audience. The list will be posted tomorrow.

Have a great week!

Shannon Storey
