

WEEKLY DRAGON TALES

June 1, 2025

Living the Langdon LAIR life

Hello Langdon school families,

Congratulations to everyone who took part in Langdon's Got Talent! Those who got on stage, as well as those behind the stage. It takes a lot of preparation to put on a show like this, and it is a really special school tradition. A shout out to Mrs. Moskal and the leadership team for their planning and direction.

Our grade 1-4s welcomed Cree author, Henri Giroux into their classes last Monday. She taught students some of her language, read her book based on her childhood, and made the kids laugh with her puppet, Stacy.

If you have volunteered with our school this year – perhaps as a field trip chaperone, one of our Career Day guests, helped in the classroom, with the hot lunch or breakfast program...we invite you to our Volunteer Tea on June 12 at 1pm.

We would like to welcome Ethan Topolinsky who is covering in the grade 1 class until school is over. We would also like to welcome Mr. Zuban back to grade 4/5. Mrs. Behnia is now on maternity leave.

We had a great turn-out for our Kindergarten Orientation evening on Thursday. Students and their families were able to meet our new kindergarten teacher for next year, Ms. Grabmuller.

If you are moving and your child will not be returning in September, could you please let our office know. This helps with planning for classes and resources.

The next two weeks will be busy with final assessments and wrap-up activities. Expectations remain the same despite the excitement (or exhaustion). We have seen some lapses in punctuality, showing respect in class, sneaking phones or ear buds and rough-housing outside or in hallways. Let's make this an safe and enjoyable end of 2024-25 for everyone!

Have a great week!

Shannon Storey
