

Parents/Guardians:

Pajama Day!

Tomorrow, October 23, 2020, is Pajama day! Please wear your warm, cozy school appropriate pajamas to school.

Halloween Happenings!

Our Langdon Leaders will be video taping a social distanced Halloween parade class by class. These videos will be shared with you by your son/daughter's teacher. We will have homeroom activities in the afternoon as indicated by the homeroom teacher. Please note, only individually store-purchased, individually wrapped treats may be shared in class. This year, students may wear school appropriate masks for the day!
